several counties of the State of Florida are hereby authorized and directed to allow the redemption or purchase, in whole or in part, where the part to be redeemed or purchased can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision, of any and all tax certificates held by the State of Florida issued in the year 1917 and prior thereto upon the payment of the amount of such certificate or certificates, or such portion thereof as the part to be redeemed or purchased shall bear to the whole, and the subsequent omitted taxes or taxes that have not been paid, including taxes for the year in which redemption or purchase is made, if made after the first day of April, with interest on such certificates and on unpaid taxes for the year 1916 and prior thereto at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the first day of April, 1918; and interest on all unpaid or omitted taxes for the year 1917 and subsequent years at the rate of 25 per cent per annum for the first year and 8 per cent per annum thereafter, beginning with the first day of April next after the year for which such taxes are due.

Sec. 2. That the Clerks of the Circuit Court of the several counties of the State of Florida are hereby authorized and directed to allow the redemption or purchase, in whole or in part, where the part to be redeemed or purchased can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision, of any and all tax certificates held by the State of Florida that were issued in the year 1918 and subsequent years upon the payment of the amount of such tax certificate or certificates, or such portion thereof as the part to be redeemed or purchased shall bear to the whole, with interest thereon from the date of such certificates at the rate of twenty-five per cent per annum for the first year and eight per cent per annum thereafter, and the payment of any and all subsequent unpaid or omitted taxes due on the land to be redeemed or purchased, including taxes for the year in which such redemption or purchase is made, if after the first day of April, with interest thereon at the rate of twenty-five per cent per annum for the first year and eight per cent per annum thereafter, beginning with the first day of April next after the year for which such taxes are due.

in whole or in part, where the part to be redeemed can be ascertained by legal and usual sub-division, in the order of their issue, by paying to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County wherein the land described in said certificates is located the amount of the certificate to be redeemed, or such portion thereof as the part to be redeemed shall bear to the whole, and any and all subsequent omitted or unpaid taxes due on said land to be redeemed prior to the year for which the next certificate was issued, with interest on certificate issued in the year 1917 and prior thereto and unpaid or omitted taxes for the year 1916 and prior thereto at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the first day of April, 1918, and interest on subsequent certificates and unpaid taxes as provided in Section Two of this Act.

Sec. 4. That when the face of any tax certificate held by the State issued subsequent to the oldest tax certificate held by the State covering any land to be redeemed or purchased is greater than would be the unpaid or omitted taxes for the year for which such subsequent tax certificate was issued, when based on the last assessed valuation against said land, then the unpaid taxes for that year based on the last assessed valuation may be collected in lieu of the amount due on such subsequent certificate and such certificate shall then be cancelled as to such land.

Sec. 5. That the unpaid or omitted taxes shall be collected upon the basis of the regular valuation placed by the assessor upon the land for the year for which taxes remain unpaid, and where no valuation was so placed then the last assessed valuation prior thereto shall be considered the regular valuation; but where the last assessed valuation against any land to be redeemed or purchased is less than the regular valuation than the last valuation shall be used.

Sec. 7. That none of the provisions of this Act shall go into effect or become operative, insofar as relates to the sale of tax certificate, until January 1, 1920, thereby giving the owner or agent or representatives of the owner, or other person acting for the owner, the privilege of redeeming his land under this Act, up to and includ-

Sec. 8. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed.
